product design competition winners

During the 2014 Hospitality Design Exposition & Conference (HD Expo) in May in Las Vegas, the International Interior Design Association (IIDA), in partnership with Hospitality Design (HD) magazine, announced the winners of the 18th Annual IIDA/HD Product Design Competition, which honors innovation, functionality, and aesthetic advancements in products debuting on the show floor. The judges, all IIDA members—Scott Hierlinger, Nelson; Rick Marencic, Daroff Design; Patricia Rotondo, Chipman Design Architecture; and Annhy Shim, the Related Group, selected 19 standouts from nearly 100 entrants. And the winners are:

BEST OF COMPETITION

Cast Stone Dimensional Panels by Architectural Systems

A modern interpretation of layering textures, the panels are made from 90 percent recycled quarried stone, are Class A fire rated, and can be used for interior or exterior applications. The marble and travertine “dust” is mixed with quality resin to express depth and perception. ARCHSYSTEMS.COM

Venetian Plaster by Vero

The slaked lime- and resin-based finishes create either a suede-like effect or a more mottled and rough form. As the lime crystallizes in reaction to air, the plaster returns to its natural limestone state, creating a wall finish that is stronger and more durable than any painted surface. VERO-RIALTO.COM
